

RPL Application

Unrecognised Qualifications

NALP will consider applications for exemption based on completion of qualifications that are not listed in the NALP Exemptions table, found in the Recognition of Prior Learning Policy, but are set at the same or a higher level and with substantially similar content (minimum 75%) to that of NALP units.

If you have a non-qualifying law degree, or similar recognised qualification with sufficient legal content (minimum 75% coverage of the content of NALP Units), please complete this application form and return it to NALP with the required documentation and a £50.00 administration fee. This fee is non-refundable. A full transcript showing the modules you achieved and a detailed syllabus of your qualification must be submitted with your exemption application.

If NALP approves your qualification for exemption, there will be a fee of £50.00 for the Level 3 units, £75.00 for Level 4 units and £100.00 for the Level 7 units (between 1st January 2021 and 1st January 2022).

Please complete all sections of this application form, and ensure you enclose the required supporting documents with your application. Incomplete applications will be returned.
